

Raise your corporate profile to the Society's 6,000 plus members!

- The Thames Valley Society of Chartered Accountants has over 6000 members and was formed in 1968
- The Society's members include those in practice, business and the public sector
- The areas covered are the counties of Berkshire, Oxfordshire and Buckinghamshire

Chartam is distributed free of charge to all members. The magazine contains society news, engaging articles and select advertising, providing an excellent opportunity for businesses and organisations to offer their services to the membership and their clients.

"We welcome emails or letters to the editor about any matters in Chartam, or about ICAEW, your district society, or chartered accountancy in general."

Paul Davies, editor of Chartam
