About us

The Builders Merchants Federation (BMF) is the only organisation that represents and protects the interests of Merchants and suppliers to the merchandising industry.

- With Central and Local Government throughout the UK and Europe
- With enforcement bodies such as Trading Standards & planning departments
- The BMF will act on individual members' behalf in disputes and keeps members up to date on current business issues
- The BMF is also the primary provider of industry specific and specialist training for all employees covering everything from apprenticeships, through product and selling skills, to manager development and even foundation degree.
- The BMF also provides a range of services to assist members in running their businesses more efficiently.

One Voice is the organisations quarterly magazine which keeps members and other key individuals informed of the Builders Merchants Federations many activities, be they lobbying government for legislative changes and also provide essential news and information on key networking events that form such a core part of Builders Merchants Federation diary.
